Many Hands Build a House, Many Hearts Make a School

Term 5, Week 3

Hello Everyone

This week certainly has been interesting weather wise! Monday was a challenging day for Hedgehogs as they had to work in the hall, due to the rain falling in their classroom! The children enjoyed their day in a larger space and we kept the KCC contractors busy! Wednesday was a challenging day for me as I worked with KCC finance to set the three schools budgets, which in 2018, believe me is a huge challenge. It is, therefore, very pleasant to spend a Friday here with the sun shining and with the children busy in their work and play.

Mr Weller has unfortunately injured his shoulder and will not be at school next week. We send him best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Headteacher Awards

This afternoon awards will be given out to:

Year R	Jack Perry	Year 4	Angharad Newbould
Year 1	Riley Wright	Year 5	Charley Jackson
Year 2	Finley Poulton	Year 6	Matthew Fletcher
Year 3	Macey Gray	Don't forget to return your badges

The theme this week has been forgiveness (Matthew 6 v 12). During worship, pupils have discussed the life of Nelson Mandela and why he was put in prison for 27 years for trying to make things fair for everyone in his country. Children thought about the people Nelson Mandela forgave on his release from prison and how he wanted to make everyone unite and work together. He knew he would have to demonstrate forgiveness so that his people would do the same.
