Many Hands Build a House, Many Hearts Make a School

Term 5, Week 5

Hello Everyone

This weekend holds not one but two significant English events, the Royal wedding of Megan and Harry which will be screened live on television and the FA cup final. I will probably be watching both, one more out of choice than the other! I am not a football fan but am fairly well educated on the game having to listen to the ins and outs of one teams performance weekly.

As I write this, I am hoping the sun comes out for our royal wedding celebrations this afternoon. Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Miss Hickling

Headteacher Awards

Due to all our royal celebrations, certificates will be awarded next week.

Attendance Ted and Punctuality Pete Awards

This week Attendance Ted will go to Badgers achieving 100% attendance. BRILLIANT! In second place were Squirrels with 97.52. Hedgehogs came in third with 95.2% and then Foxes with 94.8%. Overall, whole school attendance just missed our target at 96.6%. Good effort!

Punctuality Pete will be awarded to Badgers with no late incidents. BRILLIANT! Squirrels had one late comer, Foxes and Hedgehogs both had two. Thank you to everyone who consistently gets to school on time.

Classes held their own worships this week due to SATs taking place. Across the school, ideas for Pentecost were shared. Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit just as Christ had promised before he ascended to heaven. This was traditionally a day when new believers were baptised or confirmed. Classes have looked at the different celebrations of baptism and confirmation into the Christian Church.

Staff News

Again, Mr Weller has unfortunately been signed off for another week with his shoulder injury. His absence will be covered in-house. We really hope to see him return fit and healthy after half-term.

Five Star Rating

We are pleased to report that following an inspection by Maidstone Borough Council our kitchen area has been awarded a five star hygiene rating. We would like to congratulate Caterlink staff (Stacey and Maz) for keeping up such high standards!
